For Immediate Release:

City Council faces heavy agenda on Tuesday

MARATHON, FL (Oct. 12, 2026) – The Marathon City Council will meet Tuesday, Oct. 13, with a variety of items on the agenda and several up for discussion, including a city audit and the city's finance contract, the city attorney position, pickleball court hours, and a fee schedule for Community Park use.

Two resolutions, 2026-84 and 2026-85, will come back to council after being tabled during September's City Council meeting.

The resolutions would allow the city to accept the transfer of 50 early evacuation workforce affordable housing residential allocations from Key Colony Beach and Layton, respectively.

Additionally, Resolution 2026-102 would ratify the collective bargaining agreement between the city, the Professional Firefighters of Marathon, and International Association of Firefighters Local 4396.

The meeting will be held in Council Chambers, Marathon City Hall, 9805 Overseas Highway, starting at 5:30 p.m.
