For Immediate Release:

Early voting underway through Oct. 31

MARATHON, FL (Oct. 20, 2026) – Early voting in this year's midterm General Election began Monday, Oct. 19, and continues through Saturday, Oct. 31.

Registered voters in Marathon can receive their ballots and cast their votes at the Monroe County Elections Office branch at 10015 Overseas Highway, in the Key Vaca Center plaza, from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Other early voting locations in the Keys available to registered voters include:

- Monroe County Elections Office, 5200 College Rd. Key West;
- Monroe County Elections Office Branch, Murray E. Nelson Government Center, 102050 Overseas Hwy. #137 (MM 102), Key Largo;
- Big Pine Key Community Park, 31009 Atlantis Drive (end of Sands Road (MM 31), Big Pine Key; and
- Plantation Key Community Center, 88820 Overseas Hwy., Plantation Key

Election Day is held on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November; this year, Election Day will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 3.

Voters will need to show a current and valid ID with both a photo and signature. The photo and signature can be verified on one ID or on two separate IDs if a voter does not have a single ID with both a photo and signature.

In Key Colony Beach, voters can select up to two of the three candidates running for City Commissioner: newcomer Lynne Benton; incumbent Kirk Diehl; and incumbent Freddie Foster.

On the state level, voters will be choosing a new governor and lieutenant governor, attorney general, Chief Financial Officer, Commissioner of Agriculture, and State Senator, Dist. 40. At the federal level, area voters will help select a U.S. Senator and Representative in Congress.

Voters will also decide on the retention of several judges, from the state Supreme Court to the 3rd District Court of Appeals, and three constitutional amendments.
