For Immediate Release:

Hope Walk to take place Saturday, Oct. 24, at Marathon Fire Rescue

MARATHON, FL (Oct. 21, 2026) – The Relay for Life of the Florida Keys Hope Walk will take place Saturday, Oct. 24, starting at 8 a.m. at Marathon Fire Rescue Station #14, 8900 Overseas Highway.

Participant will traverse a $2^{1/2}$-mile route from Station #14, along Aviation Boulevard to LJ's Café and turning around to return to the station.

Monroe County Sheriff's Office deputies will be on hand to keep participants on track, and sponsor Million Air will provide snacks and seating inside their hangar for those who want to attend but cannot join in the walk.

A dual event is scheduled in honor and remembrance of longtime Marathon residents Clara and Jerry Mayette. A Luminaria Walk is set for Saturday, Nov. 9, from 6 to 9 p.m., at Crane Point Museum.
