For Immediate Release:

City Hall staff share a laugh on Friday, Oct. 30, at the 18th annual Employee Costume Contest.

Employee Costume Contest raises $428 for local non-profit

MARATHON, FL (Oct. 30, 2026) – For the 18th year, city staff dressed for success during the Employee Costume Contest.

And successful they were, raising $428 in total for Peyton's Promise, a sanctuary for dogs who are homeless, have special needs, are nearing end-of-life, or are otherwise difficult to adopt.

This year's competition featured 14 costumed contestants: an angler fish; Shrinking Bob; Where's Evie?; a mermaid; Mrs. Ray; Halloween Town; Mrs. Roper; a butterfly; Sully and Mike from "Monsters Inc."; Bat Dog and his Riddler; '80s Queen; a gnome; Pit Boss; and Mario Kart.

Deputy Utilities Director Libby Frazier, as the '80s Queen, was the top vote-getter – earning bragging rights as the "Greatest Ghoul" until next year.

Libby Frazier, as the '80s Queen, was the top vote-getter in the city's 18th annual Employee Costume Contest.
