For Immediate Release:

Election signs can be recycled at a variety of locations in the Florida Keys.

Free election sign recycling available

MARATHON, FL (Nov. 9, 2026) – Monroe County, the Monroe County Supervisor of Elections, and Waste Management are partnering to provide free recycling for election signs and campaign materials during the 2026 fall election season.

City of Marathon Florida	Press Release (#164-26) | CITY OF MARATHON 9805 Overseas Highway Marathon, Florida 33050 305-743-0033

Marathon residents and campaign sign collectors may recycle corrugated plastic election signs, metal sign stands, and paper campaign materials through Dec. 15 at the Long Key Transfer Station, Mile Marker 68.

Participants should look for marked collection bins at each location. Remove metal stands from the signs and place them in the appropriate marked container.

Election signs require special handling and should not be placed in curbside recycling bins.

The station is one of five designated drop-off locations throughout the Florida Keys.

Other drop-off locations are:

- Key Largo Transfer Station
  11180 County Road 905
- Cudjoe Transfer Station
  Mile Marker 21.5, Blimp Road
- Waste Management – Rockland Key
  125 Toppino Industrial Drive
- Key West Lions Club Parking Lot
  2405 N. Roosevelt Boulevard, Key West
