Clarification of Annual Review of Vacation Rental Fees and Signage – Garrett explained at the last meeting this was voted on with no discussion, but the Council may have thought they were increasing fees, but the fees were the same as before. Zieg suggested a ten percent increase due to cost going up. Senmartin commented if an increase was necessary, he would be okay with it, but if it is not justified, he has an issue with it. Bartus commented that he would be in favor of an increase if it would help find unlicensed rentals, or deal with trash on the collector roads. Gonzalez stated he was in favor of increased fees. Zieg commented that a year ago, under the executive order, signage had to be placed in front of the vacation rental with a 24-hour contact number with the manager’s name. Zieg asked if we could find a way to make that part of our policy.

MOTION: Senmartin moved to allow Councilmember Cook to participate via Zoom

Greg Coldiron distributed a copy of the vacation rental ordinance and suggested making amendments.

Bartus explained the signage in the ordinance was for the renters and was for inside the unit so they knew what the rules were, and agreed with Zieg to make the agent/manger and phone number outside the unit for the neighborhood to call if there is a problem.

The Council gave head nods to direct staff to come back with a recommended increase and justification for the increase and make the outside signage the policy for vacation rentals.

Discussion of Boat Ramp Fees (Councilmember Zieg) Zieg explained the boat ramps have been under attack although the staff, MCSO and FWC did a great job. Zieg commented that the honor system would not work and suggested a $50 round trip launch fee collected through the Marina Enterprise Fund would eliminate a great deal of problems and a $10 annual pass for residents would be adequate, no cash would be collected, but an employee with a Square type device to collect fees via credit card and a cell phone. Zieg explained this may also encourage Key Colony Beach to open their own boat launch again, since all of the vacation rentals in Key Colony use the Quay Boat Ramp and would also encourage people to use private ramps. Bartus commented that people were asking how much it costs to launch and agreed we should take care of locals and asked what we could legally do. Williams gave an example of old town Key West parking. Senmartin suggested an air-conditioned booth with an attendant minimum Friday to Monday. Zieg suggested a City vehicle has air conditioning Gonzalez agreed that people were opening their wallets asking what the fee was. Bartus commented that the fees would cover our costs. Cook agreed that fees were not a bad thing, and boat ramps costs money.

Mini Season Recap (Councilmember Bartus) – Bartus commented that we were better prepared this year and thanked the task force, Andy Newman, TDC, FWC, and MCSO

Trailer Ranch Ordinance Update (Bartus) Bartus questioned if the ordinance for permanent RV sites does not match what we passed. Garrett explained that the version that had a sunset clause was sent to DEO in July of 2020 was not reflective of those changes and will come back to the Council next month to eliminate the sunset clause. Senmartin commented that the ordinance was set so that the RVs were road ready and questioned if we had a mechanism to make them go or fine them if they don't leave. Garrett explained it is in the ordinance.

Cargo Lift (Gonzalez) – Gonzalez explained in October of 2019, this came before us and now it is back, the person that was in charge of bringing back an ordinance to us resigned and this was never completed. The issue is the cargo lift safety if it is not enclosed, someone could potentially get underneath it. Williams commented he would bring back an ordinance.

Landry Sawyer Clean Up Day - Gonzalez explained we promised Landry we would have a clean the curb day, which will be September 25th and MCSO will also make their personnel available.

Garrett asked to remove the reports from consent agenda.
