Resolution 2023-54, Authorizing the City Manager To Execute A Release Of Unity Of Title On Behalf Of The City In The Form Attached To This Resolution Concerning Property Described As Block 50, Lots 1 & 2, Crains Subdivision; And Providing For An Effective Date.

Garrett provided a staff report to Council explaining the release of unity of title was a time sensitive matter and staff recommended approval. He provided a background of the unity of title which stated the unity of title was created in 2013 to adjoin two adjacent properties due to vehicles and accessory structures located on the vacant parcel and permits were submitted years prior. He explained the BPAS allocation has been awarded and the permit is now active. The vehicles and accessory structures have been removed and Garret recommended approval of the release of unity of title.

Williams stated for the record no one from the public was present to speak.

MOTION: Smith moved to approve Resolution 2023-54.
