Council sets meeting to discuss city manager candidates

MARATHON, FL (July 23, 2026) – The Marathon City Council will meet on Tuesday, July 28, to discuss the next steps in selecting a new city manager.

Council members met five candidates on Thursday, July 23, at Marathon City Hall.

Each candidate was interviewed by the individual City Council members Lynn Landry, Kenny Matlock, Robyn Still, Debra Struyf, and Mayor Lynny Del Gaizo.

Following the interviews, the council will discuss their findings at Tuesday's Special Call meeting, set for 5:30 p.m. in Council Chambers at Marathon City Hall, 9805 Overseas Highway.

City Attorney Steve Williams has served as Marathon's interim city manager since the council voted in February to terminate City Manager George Garrett.
