MARATHON, FL (Aug. 31, 2026) – The City of Marathon has become increasingly active on social media, specifically Facebook.

In addition to the city's website at City of Marathon at <https://www.ci.marathon.fl.us>, you can get information on city news, upcoming events, employee features, even the daily weather report from the U.S. National Weather Service for the Florida Keys on Facebook at City of Marathon, Florida.

The city is continuing to expand its outreach to the community and is currently working to update other social media such as YouTube, Instagram, X (formerly Twitter), Threads, and Nextdoor.

Additionally, the city is near completion of its new website, which will add more features and information for the public.

In the event of an emergency, social media provides one of the fastest ways to reach a wide portion of the community and provide up-to-date information, the ability to quickly correct misinformation, and offer guidance and resources following an emergency.

The City of Marathon is dedicated to providing information to the community in a fast, reliable fashion, and these moves toward increased social media presence will assist in keeping the community educated and informed.
