

For Immediate Release:

Learn real-life lifesaving skills with Marathon Fire Rescue's new CPR classes.

CPR classes set to resume Saturday, Aug. 15, at Station #14

MARATHON, FL (July 22, 2026) – Marathon Fire Rescue will once again offer citizen CPR classes, beginning Saturday, Aug 15. A second class is set for Saturday, Aug. 29.

The single-session, four-hour sessions will be held at Station #14, 8900 Overseas Highway, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Additional classes will be scheduled as instructors are available

The instructor-led, hands-on sessions follow the American Heart Association's proven Heartsaver model, providing video-based instruction plus expert guidance to reinforce critical life-saving skills.

The Basic Life Support (BLS) course trains participants to promptly recognize several life-threatening emergencies, give high-quality chest compressions, deliver appropriate breaths and ventilations, and provide early use of an Automated External Defibrillator (AED).

Participants will earn AHA CPR (Adult, Child, and Infant) and First Aid certification upon completion, which is valid for two years.

Cost of the course is $95.

Registration is required; visit <https://www.marathonfirerescue.org/cpr-classes> or use the QR code provided.

This course is accepted by the U.S. Coast Guard for captain's licenses and meets general certification requirements for general contractors and healthcare providers.

Private classes for groups of five or more also can be scheduled with dates and times negotiable.
