MARATHON, FL (June 15, 2026) – Although summer hasn't officially arrived, the heat was on at the Hot Havana Nights Party on Saturday, June 13, at the Oceanfront Park Event Tiki.

The free, city-sponsored event featured 10 classic vehicles competing in a vintage car show, incredible music selections provided by DJ and singer Luannen, delicious food options from Saboras Unidos, soda and adult beverages from Bongos, and water from the Florida Keys Aqueduct Authority to keep everyone hydrated.

Visitors also enjoyed a variety of fun activities and games, including dominoes and bean bag toss, and many took part in choosing the winners of the vintage car competition.

Collecting the award for Best Paint was Bobby Ban, while Jose Eduardo Pena took home the People's Choice award, and Best in Show honors went to David Roux.

The city's next sponsored event is America-Fest: Celebrating 250 Years of Independence," set for Saturday, Aug. 1, at Marathon Community Park.
