For Immediate Release:

City offices to close June 19 for Juneteenth holiday

MARATHON, FL (June 12, 2026) – The City of Marathon offices will be closed on Friday, June 19, for the federal Juneteenth National Independence Day holiday.

Additionally, many local, state, and federal agencies will be closed, including banks, courts, and the U.S. Postal Service. Trash collection will not be affected.

Juneteenth, which commemorates the end of slavery in the United States, became a federal holiday in 2021.

All local and county government offices will reopen on Monday, June 22.
